Information regarding direct admission for UG

Any candidate who is already admitted to any subject / course will not be entitled to take direct admission by doing log in with their unique ID. Moreover, direct admission is meant for the students who had not filled up the form till now. But one can also cancel his /her subject in which he /she had already admitted by logging in and then he /she can take direct admission to other subject / course.

In spite of this information mentioned above, all the applicants should note that direct admission to any course / subject strictly depends on the availability of seats. Authority will not take any responsibility for any non-availability of seats in any course / subject. To confirm the same one can take admission at first, by doing new registration (with different phone No.) and then after taking admission to the subject of his / her choice, he / she can proceed towards cancellation in which he / she had already admitted. The extra money deposited will be refunded / adjusted after deduction a charge, as will be decided by the admission sub-committee.
